

Existing view from Viewpoint 7: Easterly north westerly view from Mt Kiangarow summit

Note:

Although this viewpoint is approximately 10 km from the nearest turbine, a distance at which the turbines could be theoretically visible, the intervening landform and vegetation curtails north-westerly views of the Project Site. Therefore, the magnitude of change on this receptor is negligible / no impact.