

20. Consultation

20.1 Ongoing Consultation Activities

In addition to distribution of Community Information Bulletins to those on the mailing list established during preparation of the Supplementary Environmental Impact Statement, bulletins will also be placed in local shops and community centres.

All community members who made a submission on the Supplementary EIS have been added to the consultation database maintained for the project and will be included in future mail outs regarding the project.

This page intentionally left blank.